

I heard a bell was crying.
When three wise men came in.

They went to south with a high fever.
Just like a hunter from deep river.

You feel like “dying Achilles” .
He can’ t keep up with the turtle.

Life has been going down the tube.
Where the forest Tung tree stands still.

When you down, you gotta see.
Your possible parts.

Life is intricate (This world is so wild).
You’ re longing to win.
You have to do it now.

White castle is burning in your mouth.
Will they come back in morning again?
The storehouse is full of complaints.
Where the field camphor tree stands still.

Will they come back in morning again?

When you down, you gotta see.
Your possible parts.

Life is intricate (This world is so wild).
You’ re longing to win.
You have to do it now.
